Chicago lawyers are having a little fun with Appleton's state senator, Mr. Kennedy.
There comes the good news from all sides that the department commanders can't stop a rush to Milwaukee during the national encampment week.
A point well taken from the Milwaukee Sentinel: It was the sleeping-car porter that drove off the Wisconsin Central train robber. He didn't propose to tolerate a rival.

Theodore Roosevelt says he will work for the improvement of the civil service until the next national election is only a year away, and then he will put in twelve months for the republican party. He could best accomplish his object by working for the republican party right along.—Minneapolis Tribune.
If Mr. Roosevelt keeps on for the next three years working for the advancement of practical civil service, he will likewise advance the interests of the republican party. These are one and inseparable.

Postmaster Paul, of Milwaukee, thought he would save appearances by resigning, but the postmaster general in accepting the resignation informed him that the investigation of the civil service commission and of an inspector had caused his removal to be decided upon, but that his resignation had saved him that disgrace. Mr. Paul will hardly have that letter framed.—New York Tribune.
The unfortunate condition Mr. Paul has placed himself illustrates the evil of too much letter writing. It had been more cautious in regard to rushing into print, he would have fared very much better. He would have served out his time, and the little "irregularities" all of a political sort, would have been left sight of and of course, forgotten.

Sometimes a very small and insignificant circumstance leads to important and strange results. Mrs. Maybrick, of Liverpool, writes a letter which showed that she wished her husband dead that the might marry another man. She gave the letter to a little girl to carry to the mail, the girl accidentally dropped it in the mud, and not wishing to send the letter in that condition, opened it to put it into another envelope and thereby the contents were revealed. This led to the arrest of Mrs. Maybrick on the charge of murdering her husband, then her trial and conviction, and finally her sentence to death. Mrs. Maybrick is a handsome woman, in good circumstances, was born and reared in Alabama, is finely educated, and has traveled in all interesting parts of the world.

The commission appointed by Secretary Rusk, of which Prof. Burrill of the Illinois university is a member, to investigate hog cholera has prepared its report. It recognizes two widespread diseases of hogs caused by different micro-organisms, one known as hog cholera, the other as swine plague, and says that the bureau of animal industry has accurately described the germs of each. The commission is not satisfied that inoculation with disease germs is a safe preventive, but declares that the threshold of an important discovery has been crossed, and that further experiments will probably demonstrate that the chemical products of the hog cholera germ in artificial culture, used for inoculation, have the same power to create immunity as the disease germ itself, and will afford a safe, efficient, and practical means of preventing a disease that causes a loss to the country of $20,000,000 annually.

A Beloit dispatch to the Milwaukee Sentinel makes the following mention of the appointment of Edward F. Hobart as surveyor general of New Mexico: "The appointment of Edward F. Hobart as surveyor general of New Mexico gives much satisfaction to his friends in this city, where he lived twenty-five years ago, and graduated from Beloit college. He went to St. Louis and engaged in business, but, a few years ago, removed to New Mexico, where he has since resided at Las Vegas. While in St. Louis, he and the Hon. Ogden H. Fether of Janesville, who then resided in the former city, were intimate friends. When Hobart applied for the surveyor-generalship, Fether enlisted Senators Sawyer and Spooner, Secretary Rusk and other Wisconsin friends in his behalf, who took up the matter with a will. Mr. Hobart is a thorough engineer and surveyor and is in every way fitted for the important work assigned to him. It is understood here that he will tender the position of chief clerk to John O. Rood, a prominent young lawyer of this city."

Ex-Governor Long, of Massachusetts, has reason for renewed confidence in the tradition which declares that there is honor among thieves. Burglars recently invaded his house at Hingham and carried off everything that was loose, but when they learned through the newspapers that three of the spoons they had taken were highly valued by Mr. Long on account of family associations with them, the thieves carefully picked these out from their spoils and returned them by the first mail. This incident reminds one of the Lord robbery in New York in 1868. The thieves got nearly $700,000 and made an equitable division among themselves. It was announced through the newspapers that certain of the funds belonged to some persons who were unable to lose the money, that the loss would throw them in poverty in the de-

A NERVOUS TRAIN ROBBER.

HE GOES THROUGH A WISCONSIN CENTRAL TRAIN.
Passengers and Porter Plundered and Shot at—Attorney Collaps Behind The Bars—Criminal Record.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 9.—At 3:30 o'clock this morning, when the Wisconsin Central train bound for St. Paul was between Chippewa Falls and Abbotsford, a man entered the sleeper, his face covered with a mask, and robbed a traveling man in the smoking room of $50 and a watch. Then, drawing a revolver, he entered the sleeping apartments and demanded valuables from all parties. He obtained several watches and three or four pocket-books without any trouble.
The robber, after getting the passengers' property, leveled his revolver at Conductor Whitney, in charge of one of the Pullman coaches, and compelled him to hand over a gold watch and $30 in money. The highwayman then turned his attention to A. Randall of the Dunham Manufacturing company of Chicago, but that gentleman refused to produce. While Mr. Randall was remonstrating with the fellow Train Conductor Pier and a porter appeared. The robber immediately fired at Pier and the porter, but the bullet from the train and has not since been heard from.
The Wisconsin Central railroad has offered $1,000 reward for the capture of the man.
Charles Gough, the porter, tells the story of the robbery as follows: "I was sitting on a camp stool when a man entered the car and said, 'I want your money, quick.' He pointed two big guns at me and I gave up. He demanded my gold watch and I gave it him. He walked me out onto the back platform and told me to stay there or he would kill me. I pulled the bell cord, but he had disconnected it. I looked into the car and saw him holding up the conductor. I slipped into the car and went to the first berth, occupied by Jake Litt of Milwaukee, a theatrical man, and asked him for a gun. He said he had none, and I was going into the other berths when the robber saw me and fired over the conductor's shoulder at me, the bullet passing through my cap. After firing at me the robber ran out, and pulling the bell-cord jumped from the train."

"The fellow wore a big cowboy hat and had dark hair and a light mustache. He was a small man and looked like a Swede. Besides the gun in each hand, he had a horse pistol and a jack-knife."
BEHIND THE PRISON BARS.
J. Frank Collom, the Minneapolis Attorney, Taken Into Custody.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 9.—The stupendous series of forgeries committed by J. Frank Collom is still the reigning sensation of Minneapolis. Fresh developments are coming to light in the case every hour, and now it is known that upward of 112 forged notes are in this city. In spite of the efforts of his creditors to give him imprisonment, that he is not guilty of the gigantic forgeries with which he is charged, Collom was arrested yesterday upon a warrant sworn out by F. F. Davis, attorney for Mr. Blaine.
The complaint charges that Collom forged a $3,500 five-day note. One of the other warrants is sworn out by W. B. Anderson on a thirty-day note issued July 6, and a third complaint was for a $5,000 note issued June 29. He was arraigned a few moments later in the municipal court, the judge, to the surprise of the crowd, and he passed the night in the city lock-up.
A somewhat sensational theory is being advanced in connection with the case. It is darkly hinted that Collom really intended suicide when he made the desperate attempt to jump out of the window of Davis & Harmon's law office Tuesday afternoon. He was in a frenzied state and it comes from an acquaintance that he said in the presence of friends that he was almost beside himself when the accusations of forgery were made against him by the attorneys. In support of the theory of suicidal intent is pointed out that within the last three months Collom has taken out insurance upon his life to an amount exceeding $100,000.

THINKS HE HAS TASCOTT.

A Texas Sheriff Asserts He Has the Murderer in Custody in Laredo.
LAREDO, Texas, Aug. 9.—A man supposed to be William B. Tascott, who murdered Ames T. Snell, the Chicago millionaire, a little more than a year ago, is now in custody of Sheriff Sanchez in this city. He has forwarded a picture of his picture to Chicago and awaits further instructions from there. As the description of Tascott prepared by the Chicago authorities mentions scars on certain portions of his body, which are duplicated on the face of the prisoner, the sheriff is positive that the long-missing murderer is at last in the toils. The prisoner gave several names when questioned as to who he was, but he asserted, saying that his name is A. O. Delphoria of Concordia, Kan., where he asserts he was working as a fireman the night of the Snell murder. The remainder of the description tallies almost exactly with the appearance of the prisoner. The fellow said he was never in Chicago, but two men who have been with him in New Laredo say that he has frequently talked with them about Chicago and displayed a thorough knowledge of that place.

ANOTHER MASKED ROBBER.

Joseph Bent enters the Rooms of Special Treasury Agent A. C. Bissell.
Overcoming the resistance of the Special Treasury Agent A. C. Bissell, a cousin of ex-President Cleveland's former law partner, last night, Mr. Bissell was struck by the crime of his own. The man grappled with the intruder, who was armed with a club and a revolver. He began beating Bissell with the club and finally fell upon him with a revolver. The man, who was named as Joseph Bent, was arrested by a police officer, and his prompt arrival probably saved the agent's life. Bissell is seriously injured. The burglar proved to be Joseph Bent, who has served a ten years' sentence for a similar crime.
Murdered by Showmen.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 9.—Wednesday evening Charles Oberg, 18 years old, of Twenty-third avenue, while creeping under a circus tent on the West Side was struck by the crime of his own. His windpipe was fractured, and, after suffering terrible agony all night, died today. His body, on account of the escape of air which should have come from his lungs, was twice its normal size when he died. Three showmen are under arrest.
Mrs. Maybrick Breaks Down.
LIVERPOOL, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Maybrick, who was found guilty of poisoning her husband and sentenced to death, has broken down under the great strain and is reported to be seriously ill. Her mother called at the day and had an emotional interview with the prisoner. A memorial to the government in behalf of Mrs. Maybrick has been signed by most of the barristers and solicitors of the Liverpool circuit. The memorial asks that the prisoner be reprieved on the ground of the conflicting nature of the medical evidence given at her trial, and that she be kept in custody among the merchants and brokers, and is receiving many signatures. There is a general ferment throughout the country against the verdict.

A Potato Fraud.

A Maine paper has discovered that many of the alleged new potatoes that people are buying and eating nowadays are not new at all, and have not been since a year ago. Some fellow has discovered a way of making old potatoes look like new by soaking them in a preparation that makes the rough outer skin peel off and leaves only a smooth inner skin like that of a new potato.

A POLICEMAN MURDERED.

A Chicago Officer Shot Down on His Beat by Thugs.
CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—At 2:45 o'clock this morning Officer Adam W. Freyer of Desplaines Street station was shot and almost instantly killed at the corner of Jefferson street and Law avenue. The policeman noticed two toughs acting suspiciously and approached them. The men at once started to run down an alley, and they were pursued by Officers Hallihan and Freyer, who fired at them. Hallihan separated from his companion with the intention of heading the men off, when the fugitives turned and one of them drew a revolver and fired twice at Freyer. Both both took effect and Freyer fell, mortally wounded. The thugs both effected their escape.

NO TRACE OF THE TRAIN ROBBERS.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 9.—No trace has yet been found of the train robbers. Both the Rio Grande railway and the express company will offer large rewards for their capture, and several organized posses have left Grand Junction and Green River in pursuit of them. The officers think the robbers are the same gang who hold up the Telluride bank for $40,000 some months ago.

WIFE-MURDERER ANDERSON REPRIVED.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 9.—Anderson, the wife-murderer, who was to have paid an extraordinary fine of $100,000 for his crime, Friday morning, was Thursday night reprieved until Sept. 19 by Gov. Francis. Anderson's sanity is doubted and the Governor concluded to give further time for investigation in that direction.

HARRISON WITH BLAINE.

The President Greeted by Crowds at Every Station Along the Route.
BAR HARBOR, Maine, Aug. 9.—President Harrison and party breakfasted at the Vendome in Boston Thursday morning with Lieut.-Gov. Brackett, Adj.-Gen. Dalton, Mayor Hart and Col. Mansfield. After breakfast the party took carriages and were escorted to the station by twenty outsiders. The streets along the route were thronged with people, who enthusiastically cheered as the President passed. Thousands crowded the station and greeted the President with cheers, which lasted till the train pulled out of the depot.
Great crowds of people were gathered at every station along the line of the road to greet the President. At South Lawrence the President went to the rear of his train and shook hands with hundreds who had gathered there. At Haverhill a large arch had been erected, and as the train came to a standstill a number of the Brother Jonathan club of Republican voters presented the President with a handsome basket of flowers in behalf of the club. President Harrison walked out on the platform when Exeter was sighted, and when the train came to a stop shook hands with the hundreds of men, women, and children who climbed up the steps.
At Portland and Brunswick great crowds were gathered and the noisy welcomes of the previous stops were repeated. The crowd that greeted the President in Augusta, Mr. Blaine's home, was a big one. It extended across the depot platform and tracks and some of its number were on the depot roof and upon buildings near at hand. As the train was brought to a standstill and the President walked out on the platform he was given an old-fashioned Maine cheer. The President grasped many of the scores of hands which were held out to him. The train moved off in a storm of cheers. At Waterville the President left the train for the first time and was escorted to a platform, where he was introduced to the immense crowd. The chief executive made a fitting response and then returned to his train, while the train started for Bangor, where there was another enthusiastic crowd.
Secretary Blaine met the President at the Mount Desert ferry, and with but a minute's delay the wife and party walked through the crowd and embarked on a special steamer. Messrs. Harrison and Blaine remained on deck during the passage to Bar Harbor. The first sign of reception came from the revenue cutter Woodbury, which was decorated, and which fired a national salute. The greeting was taken up by the yacht, some of which were decorated. Then the welcome was taken up by people on shore. The President and Mr. Blaine landed and walked along the wharf out into the street, where carriages were waiting them. Arrived at Mr. Blaine's cottage, the President and Secretary of State were received by Mrs. Blaine. In the evening the President dined quietly with the Blaine family and rested. Friday lunch and dinner were served, and the evening will enjoy the hospitality of the canoe club. While no definite announcement has been made, it is understood that he will go to Moose Head island during his visit to the East and a popular reception at Bar Harbor is talked of.

JOHN BULL'S DECISION.

He Says British Interests Must Be Protected in the Behring Sea.
MONTREAL, Aug. 9.—The Gazette's special cable says: "My cable of yesterday is confirmed. The imperial authorities have decided that British rights must be protected in the Behring sea."

WARSAW'S EPIDEMIC ABATING.

CARTHAGE, Ill., Aug. 9.—The State Board of Health has been in session at Warsaw since Wednesday for the purpose of looking into the epidemic of bloody flux at that place. It is impossible to ascertain what action they have taken if any. The disease is rapidly diminishing and the health conditions are much better. There have been twenty-two deaths according to the statement of Dr. Parker, at Warsaw.

—The Young Ladies' Seminary, to be opened in this city September 9th, will offer a course of instruction second to no school of its kind in the northwest. The school will be unsectarian, its aim will be to impart a christian education and a thorough course in mathematics, the sciences and languages. The building which the Bishop Welles' school is occupying on South Main street, is being remodelled and very much improved, so that, when it is completed it will be a model school building, containing elegant school and recitation rooms below, and on the second story very convenient rooms for those ladies who come from abroad. Many letters of inquiry and applications for scholarships are constantly being received by the management, and there is every evidence to show that this school is destined to become one of the permanent institutions of our city.
—A very pleasant party was held at the home of W. W. Cary, north of Footville last evening. The party was given by the Masons and their friends, of Footville. There were about one hundred and twenty-five present, and the occasion was a very delightful one to all present. A number from this city went and participated in the enjoyment of the evening. The lawn was brilliantly illuminated and a large platform erected on which many "tripped the light fantastic" until an early hour this morning. Tuckwood's orchestra furnishing the music. Prof. C. K. Hunt was present and discoursed sweet music on the violin. This gentleman was heartily enjoyed, and by the way, he is one of the best artists on the violin in this part of the state. Refreshments were also served during the evening. The occasion was one long to be remembered by all present.

—People's Lodge No. 469, Independent Order of Good Templars, assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in the Court Street M. E. church block.
—Dr. B. T. Sanborn took the afternoon train for Kilbourn city. He will return to-morrow accompanied by his wife who has been spending the past week at the Dells.
—Several professional altar builders have been in the city recently submitting plans for the new altar to be built at St. Patrick's church. The altar will cost in the neighborhood of $1000.
—The Evening Wisconsin: The Scotch picnic to be held at Janesville on July 15th, will doubtless be a great success. About $400 will be given in prizes. The president, Dr. James Mills, is certainly the right man in the right place.
—The additional story on St. Paul's German Lutheran school building is about completed. This will give facilities for about twice the number of scholars.
—Prof. John Zink will be the principal of the school which will commence in September.
—It has been decided to hold the social party of the N. O. W. club of the 13th inst. at Burr's Springs. This is the last dance of the series. It is probable that a reorganization will be effected and another attractive series of parties planned for an early date.

—The embankment on the west side of the cellar at the Stephen Grubb property, caved in this morning causing some very swift movements on the part of persons who were laying a wall in that vicinity. Fortunately all managed to keep out from under the land slide.
—Masons commenced work on the basement of the block to be erected on the Stephen Grubb property, West Milwaukee street this morning. This structure will be built of Milwaukee white pressed and Indiana red pressed brick and will be one of the most substantial and beautiful blocks in the city.
—Wednesday, August 14, is the day for the Modern Woodmen's annual picnic. The order will be largely represented from different camps in the southern part of the state. The comfort of the public will be catered to in every possible way. This will be one of the best picnics of the year.
—John H. Jones, the East Milwaukee street grocer, has just completed an elegant new residence on South Main street. For convenience and elegance of design it has no many equals in the city. It will be occupied in about two weeks by Mr. Jones and his family. The house was built by John T. Wilcox, Locust street.
—Margueret, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Samuels, 101 South Adams street, had the misfortune to fall from her chair at the breakfast table this morning and fractured her arm just above the elbow. The girl at first fainted from the effects of the pain, but is now doing well under the skillful care of the doctor.
—Fred Ormsby, who has held the position of bill clerk at the American express office this city, for the past three years, has resigned that position and will leave on Monday for St. Louis, Mo., where he will engage in other business. His many friends in this city will wish him success in whatever he undertakes. Elmer Skelly has been appointed to the position vacated by Mr. Ormsby.
—"Ant Lizzie" Aiken, who has been spending the past month visiting friends in this city, left on the morning train for her home in Chicago. This lady has been doing missionary work upwards of thirty years, spending four years as nurse in the civil war. The good she has done humanity can hardly be realized. She was also one of the early settlers of Chicago, coming to that city in the year 1837.

—The publisher of the Portrait and Biographical Album of Rock County announces that this valuable work is nearly completed, and will be ready for delivery to those who have given orders for it in about three weeks from date. The album is expected to be the most complete and perfect thing of the kind ever published, and ought to be of great value to the people of Rock county. A large amount of labor has been expended on its production.
—Remember the excursion on the Billie Burr to-morrow afternoon—may be the last one to go above the four-mile bridge. The Burr, under the safe management of Mr. Buchholz, will leave its dock at three o'clock p. m., returning at eight. On the homeward trip the boat will land at Crystal Springs, where the managers of the Woman's Exchange, in whose interest the boat is engaged, will serve cake and ice cream. Round trip, 25 cents; children 12 and under, 15 cents.
